Art Workshops for Corporate Events

About Us

Room To Imagine is an art studio in Singapore specialising in Acrylic Pour and Resin Pour Art workshops. Having taught students aged 4 to 82, we believe that anyone with an open mind can learn to create art.

During our workshops, we encourage participants to let go of any pre-conceptions about themselves and the art form. To indulge in some good old messy fun and get in touch with their creative side.

Key Differences (Acrylic Pour vs Resin Pour)

1. Medium: Acrylic Pour uses Acrylic Paint and Pouring Medium while Resin Pour uses Epoxy Resin and Colour Pigments/Inks.
2. Techniques: The two mediums uses different techniques, with Acrylic Pour having a wider range of techniques.
3. Finish : Resin dries to a glossy water-like finish while Acrylic dries to a matte or satin finish.
4. Cost: Resin is generally pricier than Acrylic due to the cost of materials, including the medium and the disposable tools that has to be replaced with every workshop.
5. Drying Time: Acrylic dries in 1-2 days, while Resin dries in 24 hrs
